

Andrew Robarts

Installation from the exhibition, Second Wave

1988

What types of colours make you think of freedom?

.....
.....
.....

Which shapes would you use in an artwork about freedom?

.....

.....

.....

Can you think of any symbols that you could use to show freedom? For example:

Can you think of five reasons why freedom is so important? Think carefully about how being free affects your life and choices.

1

.....

2

.....

3

.....

4

.....

5

.....

Work in groups to combine these four different elements: colour, shape, symbols and reasons, to create a poster that explains to other people why freedom is important, what freedom means to you, and how your life is improved by being free.