

Design your own artist's studio

You could either draw to create your own artist's studio, or use pictures cut from magazines to create a collage of your dream studio.

Think about all the questions you answered on the worksheet before you begin the design.

Collage is a work of art made by attaching pieces of different materials to a flat surface.