

The Motion

A charity school is very expensive to run. As we have helped the children so much and given them a better life, they should contribute to the running of the school. Besides, many children are working at this time.