Young Blue Room Print Club: Summer Sessions

Blue Room is an inclusive art group with learning disabled and neurodivergent people.

It is run by the Bluecoat arts centre in Liverpool.

This is some information about a 4 week summer project with our new group for young people called.

Young Blue Room Print Club

It is a new group for people aged 14 to 18 who have a learning disability.

It is for people who enjoy being creative and want to make art.

This project is free to join in with thanks to funding from the Health Lottery Foundation.

It is a chance to try and see if you want to be part of Blue Room in the future.

Meet the team

The Blue Room team have lots of experience.

They help people who have support needs to be creative.

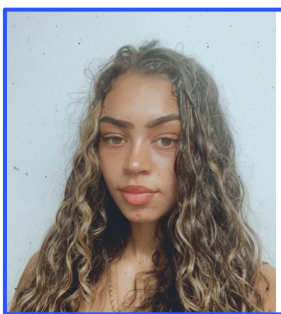

Rachel McMahon is our Blue Room Facilitator.

She is an artist who plans and shares the art activities with people taking part.

Emily Armstrong is one of our Blue Room Assistants.

She is an artist who helps people to take part in activities.

Oleta Omar La Cruz is our Participation Assistant.

She is a musician and performer who helps people to take part in activities.

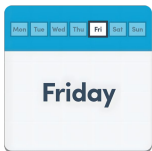

Becky Waite is the Blue Room Manager.

She helps to organise the project and events.

Dates for your calendar: Summer Art Sessions

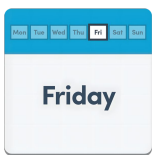

Over the summer holidays we have an extra 4 full day sessions of Print Club.

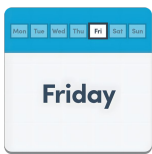

These are the dates:

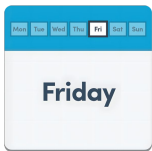

Friday 7 August

Friday 14 August

Friday 21 August

Friday 28 August

The sessions will be from:

10:00am - 3:00pm

They will take place at:

the Bluecoat
School Lane
Liverpool
L1 3BX

What will we do?

We will find out about different kinds of art including printmaking.

You will have chance to make your own art.

You can use your ideas to create something new.

You can gain confidence as an artist.

There will be chance to meet people who share your interests and make new friends.

We will have a display of art and a celebration event in autumn.

We will work as a team to plan this event. This is a chance to share what you have made with others.

How do I join in?

If you would like to take part in the Young Blue Room Print Club Summer Sessions please get in touch with Blue Room Manager Becky Waite:
phone: 07549079500

email:
blueroom@thebluecoat.org.uk

Becky will share a link to an online form.

The form asks some questions about you and your access requirements.

The information you share helps us to support you in the best way.

Becky will get in touch with your parent or carer to confirm if you have a place

Places are very limited and you must have your place confirmed before attending.
