

The 2011 Lowry Lounge

Saturday 15 October 11am – 3pm part of Bluecoat's Chapter & Verse literature festival venue: Bluecoat Sandon Room & walking tour

Programme

11.00 – 1.00 Colin Dilnot leads 'Lowry's Liverpool' tour starting and finishing at the Bluecoat, revealing locations mentioned in the manuscript of Lowry's 'lost' novel In Ballast to the White Sea, partly set in Liverpool - which is being prepared for publication in the next two years.

1.00 - 1.30 break

1.10 Bryan Biggs' Lowry DJ set; and projection of film on back wall, The End of St Petersburg

1.35 welcome & introduction to the Lounge and launch of volume 2 of The Firminist

1.45 Helen Tookey poetry session with home movie Mexico 1945/46 projection behind

1.55 Annick Drösdall-Levillain a few words from our French correspondent

2.05 Michael Carson talks about the Lowry plaques he has been surreptitiously slipping into New Brighton's public realm

2.15 Film: After Lowry by Miguel Mota film (32mins) with introduction by Ailsa Cox

2.55 Toast to Lowry, with Manx Fishermen's hymn playing, audience singalong optional

3.00 finish
