

This Saturday 31 October 9.00am – 10.00pm

The Voyage That Never Ends

A day-long journey by ferry, coach and foot tracing Malcolm Lowry's early Merseyside years

Expect hymn singing, hidden histories, holes in one, literary discoveries, and more on this psychogeographical mystery tour devised by the Firminists.

After traversing the Wirral in daylight, the journey ends at the Bluecoat with talks, films and a special Malcolm Lowry cabaret featuring a ukulele band, live jazz from filmmaker Mike Figgis, Lowry poetry set to music by James Tyson and other delights.

Food and our specially brewed Malcolm Lowry Golden Ale available in the bistro upstairs at the Bluecoat.

Book at Tickets & Information:

£15.00 all day (places limited)

£5.00 evening programme: film & cabaret (7.00 - 10.00pm)